

Faculty Development Programme (FDP) on "The Expansive Role of College Teachers in the Context of NEP 2020"

Al-Azhar College of Arts and Science, Thodupuzha, in association with its Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), successfully organized a Faculty Development Programme (FDP) on "The Expansive Role of College Teachers in the Context of NEP 2020." The program was held on November 25, 2025, commencing at 10:00 am.

The FDP was structured around a formal inaugural session followed by a key technical session focusing on the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020.

The formal welcome was delivered by Ms. Ans Maria Xavier (Faculty, Dept. of English). The session was presided over by the Principal, Dr. Feroosh M Basheer, and officially inaugurated by Dr. Somasekharan B Pillai (Dean, Al-Azhar Group of Institutions), who delivered the Inaugural Address. The event also saw felicitations from key college authorities, including Mr. Arun Gopal (Academic Dean), Mr. Shammash Basheer (IQAC Coordinator and Vice Principal), and Dr. Thomas Francis (Vice Principal).

The central objective of the FDP was addressed in the technical session:

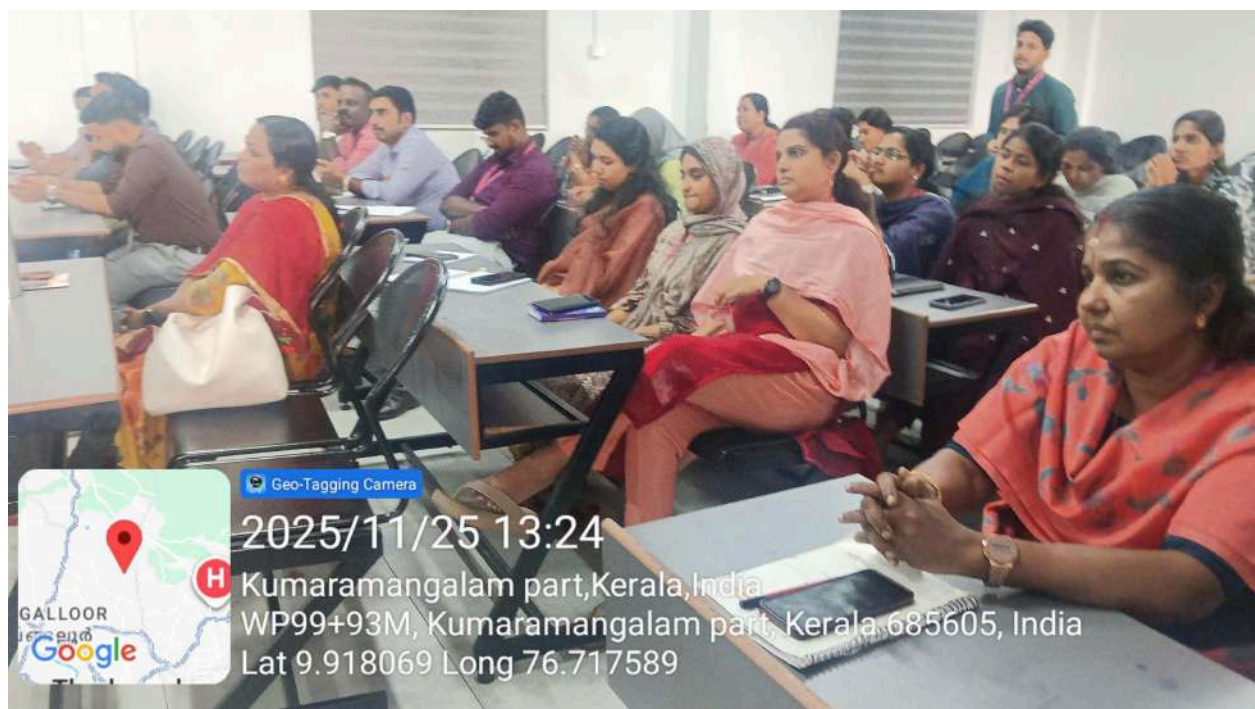

Topic: "The Expansive Role of College Teachers in the Context of NEP 2020"

Speaker: The resource person for the session was Dr. Kamaludhenn K T (Principal, Al Shifa College of Arts and Science, Perinthalmanna).

Dr. Kamaludhenn K T elaborated on the paradigm shift required of college teachers under NEP 2020. The discussion likely centered on the transition from traditional lecturing to roles that encompass mentorship, multidisciplinary teaching, skill-based education, curriculum design, and leveraging technology, emphasizing the teacher's expanded responsibility in fostering holistic student development.

The Faculty Development Programme concluded with a Vote of Thanks delivered by Mr. Muhammad Bappu Naseer (Faculty, Dept. of English). The event served as a crucial platform for the faculty to gain deeper insights into their evolving responsibilities under the new national educational framework.
